Volunteer Opportunities

1. Carroll County Historic Timeline

In preparation of the 200 year Celebration, CCHS is developing a mobile Timeline Display to travel to each city in Carroll County in 2026. Volunteers will serve on a Committee to research the events in Carroll County from 1826 to 2026. This Committee will also design the display panels and marketing ideas.

2. Walk Through History

CCHS is developing a “Walk Through History” as a fundraiser. Planned for Spring 2023. Participants will receive a specially designed t-shirt and will walk along a path with historical markers highlighting the history of Carroll County. We need volunteers to research the events of Carroll County, design a t-shirt and design the markers.

3. City Cemetery Tour

Redesign the City of Carrollton Cemetery Tour to add newly discovered information. Volunteers will design a new brochure.

4. Research Requests

Occasionally CCHS will receive Research Requests on our website. Volunteers will be part of a Research Committee to assist in finding the information per the requests.

5. Historic Adamson Square

CCHS is developing a comprehensive study on Adamson Square. This will be a listing of the businesses that at one time operated on the Square. The study will include the Square proper and the businesses along the first block below the Square. Essentially, the buildings attached to the Square and the business located there. Volunteers will list each business attached to the Square. Also, look for pictures of the Square from 2022 backwards.

6. Scanning Photographs

CCHS has a large collection (1,000 plus) of photographs from Smith’s Studio. The photographs include weddings, Military groups, family reunions and family groups and school groups. Volunteers will scan each photograph, catalog and store the photograph for easy retrieval.

7. Church Profiles

CCHS is developing a historic profile of the churches in Carroll County. Volunteers will develop a questionnaire to request information about how the churches started and events through the years. A list of Pastors and an offer to scan church minutes.

Coming in 2023!

In 2023 the Carroll County Historical Society will begin publishing E-Books on our website. The E-Books will cover a range of topics pertaining to the historic events and people of Carroll County.

A CCHS membership will be required to view the E-Books.
