MARCH 2014

Ruth Holder to Speak to Carroll County Historical Society

March 18th 6:30 PM at Stallings Community Center Lions Parks Room

Ruth Holder, co-author of A History of Temple, Georgia— A West Georgia Town of Carroll County, will present her program on the Temple, GA history. She is a Carroll County native from the Flat Rock community and was educated in the schools at Flat Rock, Villa Rica, and West Georgia College. Afterwards, she earned her graduate degree at the University of Georgia.

While at West Georgia College she met and married Burwell Holder, her co-author in 1952. For the next forty years she taught school and served as a librarian in the Paulding and Carroll County Schools. Miss Foster with the West Georgia College Library asked her to write a history of Temple for a new book on Carroll County. Their first book was published in 1976 with a 1982 update for the Temple Centennial celebration. Upon retirement in 1993, Ruth continued her interest in Temple's history. Ruth had collected so much information and photographs that she revised and expanded the book again in a June 2013 release.

The book is available in both Kindle electronic and printed versions.

Carroll County Historical Society Updates

The CCHS is in the process of implementing its computer documentation of collections and artifacts at the Curtis-Marlow-Perry House. Scott Eldred and Carter Clay have been very busy reviewing, classifying, and entering descriptions and donors of the many items now in our possession. The effort is designed to properly acknowledge the source of each collection and to enable museum users to search and find historical data quickly.

CCHS would like to staff the museum on a scheduled basis with member volunteers. If you can volunteer your time, please call or e-mail Scott Eldred at 770-295-9789 or dsel65@gmail.com for details.

The CCHS Museum would like to encourage your donation of historical items regarding Carroll County, Carroll cities, and West Georgia family items to the Museum. Such donations will be documented, preserved, and made available for research purposes. Please let Dr. Jack Crews know if you or friends have anything that they would like to contribute to this effort.

Request for Family Stories

CCHS wants your Carroll County Family stories for the Newsletters and for the Museum files. If you have collected genealogy information or have family stories that have been handed down, please contact the Society and let us help you document them.

Every member has information to share that would be of interest to other members. If you don't act soon to save those stories, they will be lost forever.

Please act now to preserve your part of Carroll County history!
