The "village blacksmith".

Curtis has several stories he will tell about the blacksmith shops in and around Carrollton. One of the first blacksmiths was on the Spivey property.

CCHS has been given a wheel straightener, anvil base, metal shear, and several rough cut spokes. from Mrs. Betty (Chase) Mullen,

Her father and grandfather were blacksmiths on Ward street. Bettys father also owned the tasty freeze in Carrollton, what is now Jerry's country kitchen.

The Public is cordially invited. Light Refreshments Will Be Served.

WHAT YOU MISSED..
CCHS MAY MEETING
SAM PYLE
PRESENTATION

Mr. Pyle gave a very detailed presentation about his time in Vietnam .

He touched the hearts of everyone in the room. We are so grateful to have been able to share the experience though his eyes.

Thank you Sam!

Mr. Pyle also had a very impressive weapons collection that helped all of us appreciate what it must have been like to be a soldier during that time..

Message from President Scott Eldred

Cooler weather will be here soon. It will be time to do many things. I am looking forward to go see the people that make sorghum syrup and go to the different events around west Georgia. It is always a joy to get in the car and find those forgotten back roads far from the interstate highway. We can for a day to step back in time to a slower pace of life where we reminisce of past events.

We can visit different craft fairs, festivals and roadside markets for the apples, fruits and some of the many jelly and fruit preserves found in the roadside stands. It is with fond memories to gather the many things gathered on a pleasant ride thru the un-disturbed countryside of West Georgia. Everyone can enjoy many of these slower paced adventures.

CCHS has accumulated a vast variety of items, documents, and pictures farming tools and equipment. We are looking for a place in Carrollton to start a museum.

Scott
